

We have the right to freedom of religion. We have the right to choose the programs we watch and listen too. Do not take this right away from us by forbidding religious programming